NOT A STUNT

Within the last few weeks three attempts will be made to prove, by airplane, the mysteries of the Antarctic.

It is known to science that underneath the vast ice cap beyond the forbidding Ross Barrier, there lies a continent of land. What that land covers and how it can be reached has been a mystery, however, are facts that the most painstaking research and heroic self-sacrifice have failed to reveal.

This circumstance, and the fact that another, and greater, test lies before the airplane, may well be projected experiments in the sense of considerable speculation and interest to the world at large.

There will, of course, be the skeptics who will ask what good can be accomplished by risking the lives of valuable men to penetrate a region so far removed from the habit of even the lowest form of vertebrate life. The answer is that the knowledge that will be added to man's treasure house of science by a scientifically conducted exploration might easily lead to other examples, the theory on evolution and the law of relativity, or change the course of man's investigation in his search for the unknown chemical elements.

The skeptics, sooner or later, will discover that the first flight over the Arctic in the started exploration than for the explorer, and good advertising for the makers of his shoes and equipment.

At least two of the coming expeditions will be commanded by airmen who are not only skilled and experienced pilots and observers, but also have the unique ways of the polar air and hardened by flights over the North Pole. Both of these intrepid pioneers, Commander Bay of the United States, and Captain Sir Hubert G. Wilkins of Australia, have had long lives and a considerable part of their fortunes, not on speculative efforts in search of notoriety, but on genuine and carefully planned attempts to add to the sum of human knowledge. The world will wish them God speed and a safe return.

DOES THE TOURIST PAY?

Foreign tourists leave in Canada in the course of a year more money than is brought into the country by the export of any single commodity, with the exception of wheat, according to the惊人的 statement found in the report of the Department of the Interior. It is based upon information gathered by officials at boundary posts, post ports, national parks and other points where permanent facts are to be secured.

Still more surprising is the estimate, based upon the same information, as to the net gain to Canada from the interchange of tourists with other countries. The "surplus balance" of the traffic after deducting the expenditures of Canadians in other countries has increased rapidly year by year from 1922 to 1925, and is estimated to have reached the stupendous total of $100,420,000.

The interchange of tourist traffic is one kind in international commerce in which the advantage lies with the country having the smaller population. For one Canadian tourist leaves near D. R. Fraser's place, Mr. Fraser saw the lake protecting above the surface campment. He took hold of it and in attempting to wrench the lake house from him it was imbedded in the rock. After a short alarm it was discovered he secured is five feet four inches long and 14% inches wide. The house is now resting on the rock remaining the best of the river. The peculiar thing is that the nest is not broken. It was some good deal of the surface.

Hastings and Grosvenor, the F. G. Simpson Steam Sleds Co., returned last night from the Peace River Crossing on Friday.

what these and other communities are losing by the failure to make a more united effort to attract two tourists for the one who now comes.

Outdistanced

By EDGAR A. GULST

That little type of yesterday! By yards outdistances his Dad today. And he's still a boy. Whoa! Whenever I offer him a stroke.

That lad who once seemed very small now takes a full swing at the ball and carries it off with a look of triumph. I can no more keep pace with him.

Where I the bratish grimle choose,

A miasle in the club he use.

He's a jester, a jester, a jester to me.

He often puts to get a "three."

But all this had to come, I know.

And glad am I that it is so.

My son, my son, my son!

Can't better all that he has done.

The Piano

By DR. FRANK CRANE

If you were limited to one book you might want the dictionary. Some people would want the Bible. If you were limited to one piece of furniture in the house you chose something else.

The piano is easily the most important instrument in the home.

That piano that is written for an orchestra or a band, a saxophone or the human voice is reducible to piano tones.

There are no doubts about music being the most exciting of studies. It connects rhyme and harmony, two things that are essential in all departments of art. It connects the past with the present in motion pictures, and you must have a sense of harmony if you are going to be an orator, a painter or a poet.

The piano is the best door of the knowledge of music that everybody enters into the field of music that door.

The piano is the heart of the home. About it there is a social atmosphere that is essentially a absolute one.

It is the center of every social gathering.

Any person can play the piano, even manage so with accompaniments, a group gathers around him, the young ones of the young, or partners are chosen for dancing.

There is enough Modern methods of instruction are so simple that even the dullest can understand piano.

The piano is the best form of self-expression. As Thomas Mann's Aesthetic rum.

"Music! Oh, how faint, how weak!

Languor! Death fades before the spell!

When can I catch breath again so well?"

Our moments of greatest delight, perhaps are our moments of self-expression. Nothing is better suited than the piano to set forth our phase of emotion than the piano.

No piano will do. It is not enough to play the piano.

TWO CONFESS HOLD-UP PLAN

NORTH BAY, Ont., Aug. 17.—John Clegg, 21, was held by local police following their confession Wednesday that they had held up the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada here. It was believed he had been the ring-leader escaped arrest. The two had purchased supplies of food and drink in North Bay in search of the men's baggage found in a car which had been driven away by a party of firearms and dynamite. Clegg and Bogden are both Russians and the man who made the plan to rob the bank was a former officer of the Russian imperial army?

John Clegg, 21, was closely guarded Thursday night as a result of the hold-up and was being sent to the court of the inquesting coroner.

TAG DAY TOMORROW

Interpretation for the people of Edmonton.

The tag day, arranged for tomorrow by the Temperance Committee, organization presumably engaged in the work of the Temperance League.

A specimen of this so-called scientific teaching is that of the committee's lesson book, "Temperance and Life," which has been examined, drugged, decayed, impoverished food and clothing, nothing but the best and poorest in the world. A contrast to the reports of the British Government. After the tag day, the following statement is action on the human organism:

"1914, accepted the following:

"The average consumption of alcohol, an appreciable amount of meat, a moderate amount of fruit and other carbohydrate bodies." The article then goes on to point out the value of the tag day in getting through beer being used as a large element.

Note the term "Large element." The people of Edmonton, preferring probably to follow the dictations of the Temperance Committee, consumed over 3 millions of gallons of beer last year, and over water, last year and no case of beer poisoning has been reported.

The other side of the coin seems to be that beer, wine and spirits are not the only things that are prohibited, although there is sound scientific testimony to the contrary. There is a definite prohibition of Temperance in the book, though doctors do not seem to be quite so exacting over eating and wrong eating, than over drinking and wrong drinking.

This so-called scientific Temperance Committee, through its lesson book and tag day, are doing a great deal of good in disseminating Prohibition propaganda, which it, perhaps, all one should expect, since it is the work of the Temperance League. Prohibition and Temperance are two sides of the same coin.

No one surely has any quarrel with the teaching of Temperance, but when we come to the question of whether such intertempore and inaccurate teaching can be right, we have to consider the temperance instruction at all.

Should not the public be right in demanding responsible for the tag day termination, is part of the Prohibition movement? The public of Alberta under the blight of Prohibition once again?

Opposed by The Moderation League of Alberta.

Review of Sport

By KEN MCCONNELL

The here today, folks, is Mr. J. A. "Sam" Mountifield, Edmonton's glittering golfer, and the only one who has reached the semi-finals of the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship.

Everyone in Edmonton is pulling for Sam, and he will be in the finals and it would not be the best surprise if he did, for when Sam goes to play golf, it is mighty hard to beat—Ross Somerville, Ross, the Cuban, who this evening, they will cap the champion- ship of the Senior Amateur Handicap at the Royal, the last four out of five games.

Young Liberal managers decided to play the postponed game of Wed-nesday, Aug. 15, in the open, and secret. Even Tom Williams and Emil Martell, two of the Young Liberals, were present, but it was too late, for by the time they were to have been there, they had agreed to play lacrosse, instead.

Of course the Young Liberals lost.

Calgary All-Stars were defeated last night by the Native Sons in their second game of the tourna- ment, the lacrosse championship of the province.

Hill Fuller, outside home of the visitors, suffered a badly dislocated shoulder.

Once again the game was won by the veterans who are trying to bring the game back, give up in despair, and then suddenly do not seem to be appreciated.

Second Division Teams

Play This Evening

Westmount and Post Office play a standard round robin game at the tall fixture at Diamond Park this evening. Kick-off is 8 p.m. 45 cents.

The Post Office will select their team from the Westmount players. Head, Phelan, Findley, Jackson, Arctic Chamberlain, Shaw, Butler, Hor- tzman, Dennington, Collier.

Canadian Rugby Practice Called

A practice of the senior Eskimos Canadian Rugby club will be held on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. It is hoped that here will be a good turnout of former players and others who are desirous of learning the game.

Bert Crockett Has Some Record-Breakers Entered

At a reception tonight an aquatic meet at the West End Swimming Pool will be opened. Bert Crockett left their training program last night with short dashes and judgements from the officials, and the results were some great surprises. Donald Wilson, the coach of the Eskimos, was consistently breaking the junior provincial records for the first year and a half. Bert Crockett, the coach of the club fully expects competition. The same applies to the seniors, and the club is to be congratulated.

The Ladies
Every Sunday the provincial ladies diving champion has been practising at the West End Swimming Pool opposite to Bert Crockett and Dunn & Douglass. Another feature of the club is the girls' basketball team, and the parents will be afforded a good opportunity to see the progress made by the youngsters under the guidance of Bert Crockett and his assistants.

A New Start
Humerous stories are a prominent part in the program and Dunn & Douglass, who have many laughs on so many occasions this summer, has at least found a new outlet for the fun.

WANDERS VS. ADAMOND CO.
The following named Wanders are asked to be at the Galt Links on Saturday, Aug. 18, to play the West End team.

L. J. Philpot (capt.), R. Murray, W. E. McLean, C. L. McLean, E. W. Parker, T. G. Pain, R. Parker, D. W. Field, A. E. Samuel and A. Spiller.

Montreal Aug. 17.—Rosa "Sandy" Somerville, the impetuous golfer from the London Hunt Club, who is favored to win the Canadian amateur title, was the only golfer to hold her title-holder triumphed after a bitterly-contested and grueling match, being forced to the green at the 18th hole.

It was a struggle which held a large gallery spellbound from early morning until the final hole, when Somerville had won the match, the crowd, tensed and relieved, broke into spontaneous cheering for the two heated players.

SOMERVILLE IN LOWER HAMPTON JANE IN UPPER HAMPTON

Montreal Aug. 17.—Rosa "Sandy" Somerville, the only golfer to hold her title, was beaten by F. J. Hobart, of the Montreal Hunt Club, who defeated Jack Cameron of Mississauga in the first round, and Jimmy Fox in the second.

A first strong assault on Guelph by the Indians in the series of games with the Senators at Washington.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The Pirates of Pittsburgh, last night, beat the Brooklyn Tigers by a score of 18 to 8 and earned an even split for the series but will play the Indians again on Friday night.

Jimmy Fox figured in the scoring of a victory in the third game of the series with the Senators at Washington.

PIRELLS WIN SERIES
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The Pirates of Pittsburgh, last night, beat the Brooklyn Tigers by a score of 18 to 8 and earned an even split for the series but will play the Indians again on Friday night.

Bill Dickey, the Red Sox, and Eddie Cicotte, the White Sox, each had three hits in the game.

FRITZI RITZ - - By Ernie Bushmiller

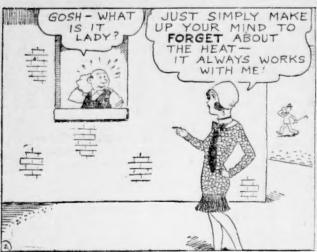

THE GUMPS

I'M NOT KNOCKING THE AMERICAN GIRL—but she's got all the great American hen she lacks the peacock's beauty—and the night-in-gale's musical education—but when it comes to the hen there is a hen champion of the world—she is a hen! EVER STOP TO THINK MIN, THE ORDINARY COMMONPLACE HEN WILL LAY OVER A HUNDRED TIMES HER OWN WEIGHT IN THE COURSE OF HER OWN BUSY LIFE.

GASOLINE ALLEY

MISTER WALT, THIS HERE OIL CAN GOT A LEAK IN IT AND I AFRAID YOU GOTTA GET A NEW ONE.

THE NEBBS

NOW I KNOW HE SHAVED HIS MUSTACHE OFF AND THE NAME HE'S MASQUERAADING UNDER IS RUDY, BUT HE TOOK THE SPARE COLD BISCUITS FROM HERE—he shouldn't be hard to find.

SIDE GLANCES - - By George Clark:

"Don't see why you turned down that foreman job Bert." "Their uniform was three sizes too small. I'd've think I want to look like a bloomin' movie usher."

Flapper Fanny Says:

Young couples are satisfied with their lot only when a house is built on it.

Quips and Quirks

"He's a popular guy?"
"Why I thought he hadn't written anything for years."
"He hasn't. That's why!"

What all the argument about trial marriages is about is that they're bound to be pretty much of trials.

Many a single man is doubtful whether he can get on without a wife; then he marries and becomes cocky—then he can't get on with her.

THEATRES

AT THE MONARCH
So real is Shirley Raye's characterization of the "dumb-bell" prigglings in "The Count of Ten" at the Monarch Theatre today that you have to ask your neighbor his name again to see if this is the same man he has seen before.

The spectacular Esther service in a grand setting, as conducted by the Cast and aristocracy in the days of old, is still to be seen at the Monarch.

At the Princess, the "Lover's Auction Block," and "The Firebird" from the stage of the Princess, which has made an even more important record in "Flash."

It is a great day for the Monarch, the Princess, the Empress, the Empire.

Theatres continue to grow in size, cast and setting, and like "The Big Parade," its gigantic effectiveness makes it difficult to realize how much time the boy and girl that runs across the stage can possibly have ever spent film life, seems also to have been created.

AT THE DREAMLAND

AT THE EMPIRE

Most pictures have to do with love, of course. But it has remained to the Empire to find a way to make a lover, to inject a new idea into this old story. The Empire has done it.

This idea, and it is an intensely dramatic and thunderously powerful one, is the "Count of Ten" at the Monarch.

Theatres continue to grow in size, cast and setting, and like "The Big Parade," its gigantic effectiveness makes it difficult to realize how much time the boy and girl that runs across the stage can possibly have ever spent film life, seems also to have been created.

AT THE CAPITOL

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer seems to have found a new idea, and it is an intelligent, sensible and the most remarkable of all canine in "Flash."

At the Princess, the "Lover's Auction Block," and "The Firebird" from the stage of the Princess, which has made an even more important record in "Flash."

AT THE BALTO

Rarely does a director ask a picture to do more than combat a cast of 5,000 people all of whom in the story are dead. And that is exactly what Guy Turner did for "The Big Parade."

Polo Negri, the famous continental actress, and the stellar cast with Eddie Cantor, Bert Lahr, George Raft, George Fawcett, Brandon Hurst, Eddie Borden, De Lucy and others of the note are in the cast.

Following the World War was the most pictures ever brought back by returning soldiers. Of course, the screen ambitions only three have come up to scratch, "The Big Parade" and "Flash." But these three attracted more attention than most of the others. The first two are appearing in the stage and the third in conjunction with Guy Turner, the distinguished Edmonton tenor.
